

How it works...

Light therapy triggers lipolysis in fat cells (adipocytes) which causes fatty acids to be broken down and released. After the 20 minute treatment, exercise will create the demand for energy which can now be met by the released fatty acids, completing the inch loss process.

Ask about
the Lipo-Light
plan today...

For the ideal physique...

before

after

before

after